

RUTA OLMANE, ECTA Second Vice-President, Latvian and European Trade mark and Design Attorney, LV

Ruta has been practising in IP since 1998. She specializes in litigation and enforcement of IP rights, foreign and domestic client's customs seizures, licensing and domain names and copyrights.

Ruta is a qualified Latvian Trademark Attorney since 2003 and European Trademark Attorney since 2004.

Since September last year she opened her own private practice and offer client full range of IP services including registration and enforcement.

Ruta is an active member in domestic and international associations. She is a Board member of AIPPI (International Association for the Protection of Intellectual Property, Zurich, Switzerland) Latvian National Group; Second vice President and Council member of ECTA; Member of the Latvian Association of Patent Attorneys; Member of the Expert group of the Intellectual Property Council of Latvia.

She was involved in working group preparing a proposal for a new Industrial Property Law.

Ruta regularly participates and lectures at various domestic and international conferences and seminars.