

DR. ANDREAS RENCK, Chair of the ECTA OHIM Link Committee, Attorney at Law, Hogan Lovells, ES

Andreas is the Office Managing Partner in the Alicante office of Hogan Lovells and specializes in intellectual property law, in particular Community trade mark and Community design law, as well as international IP prosecution and litigation.

He has been involved in a large number of application and opposition proceedings before the Office for Harmonization in the Internal Market (OHIM) in Alicante and has represented clients in major cases before the General Court in Luxembourg.

Andreas's experience includes representing international and medium sized companies in proceedings before the General Court in Luxembourg, advising clients on world-wide prosecution and litigation strategies in trade mark conflicts, advising various international clients on complex worldwide settlement and coexistence agreements with main competitors, in particular in the financial and electronic industry, representing clients in proceedings before OHIM and coordinating national court proceedings against the opponents and advising clients on filing and defense strategies in relation to non-traditional trade marks and defending those marks before OHIM.

He is a member of INTA, ECTA and GRUR.

Andreas was educated at the Hamburg University, Law School (1992). He obtained his LLM in European Community Law in 1994 from the University of Essex. He completed his PhD Law in 1995 at Hamburg University and his bar exam in Hamburg (1996).

Andreas is the co-author of "Computerrechts-Handbuch" and author of various articles on Community and international trade mark law as well as Internet law.

Andreas is a Lecturer at Alicante University, Spain and has given various presentations at INTA and other organisations' events.