

DR. PETER SCHRAMM, Member of the ECTA Design Committee, Attorney at Law, Meyerlustenberger Lachenal, CH

Peter is a member of Meyerlustenberger Lachenal's IP team which ranks among the leaders in Switzerland in Intellectual Property law.

Peter graduated from the University of Konstanz, Germany. Before joining Meyerlustenberger Lachenal he has worked as trademark lawyer and legal advisor with the Swiss Federal Institute of Intellectual Property, Bern. He is admitted to the bar in Switzerland and Germany.

The practice of Peter comprises prosecution and litigation of IP rights in the fields of trademark, design, copyright and unfair competition law. He has special experience in supporting creative and design-focused companies, in particular manufacturers of design products and advertising agencies in all IP matters worldwide. He is specialized in the development and the implementation of trademark and design protection strategies, in trademark, copyright, unfair competition and design litigation and in coordinating international IP disputes also outside the Swiss borders.

Peter is the Swiss representative in the ECTA Design Committee and a member of INTA, INGRES, GRUR and VPP. He is the author of several publications related to trademark, design, copyright and unfair competition law and a frequent speaker on topics on those subjects in and outside of Switzerland. He has inter alia served as lecturer for the training courses for the Swiss Patent Attorney Examination at the Swiss Federal Institute of Intellectual Property and as speaker for the Academy of European Law (ERA), the University of St. Gallen (Switzerland) and the Swiss Institute of Intellectual Property (INGRES).
